

Message 10

Love God as your Father

Helen Padgett – December 30, 1914

Your friend is not just right when he ascribes the inflowing of God's love to any vibrations of spiritual forces, other than the pure and only love of God.

His love is not a mere vibration, but an actual existing love, which has its source only in the fountainhead of His love; no other force or thing enters into it, only pure and everlasting love which emanates from the Father.

So tell him that he must believe that God is an infinite actual being who loves him as a father, and not some mere vibratory love or power moving through the universe without a fixed and predetermined plan for the happiness of mankind.

I hope he will soon see that if he wishes to obtain the greatest happiness on earth as well as in the heavens, he will come to believe that God is his real, personal Father, with all the love that a Father (the only one) can have for his child.

He can obtain the happiness, resulting from the possession of this love, only by prayer to the Father, and belief in the actual existence of the Father, and His desire to bestow this love in answer to such prayer.

He must let this love of God into his soul and believe that it is there. When he gets it though he will know it and he will not need any further proof than the happiness that will come to him by its mere possession.