

Message 18

My birth and early life
Jesus – June 8, 1915

When I was satisfied that I was chosen by my Father to perform His work of declaring to the world the bestowal of His great gift of the Divine Love that was in His nature, and which formed the predominant principle of that nature, I commenced my ministry, and continued to work for the redemption of mankind, on earth, until my death on the cross.

I was not then as perfect as I am now, and my knowledge of the truths of the Father was not so great as it is now.

Let men know though, that what I taught was true, even though I did not teach all the truth, and they will learn that I am my Father's true son, and the special messenger by whom these great truths was to be taught to mankind.

I was not, when on earth, so filled with the love of the Father as I am now, and had not the power to make men feel that this love is the only thing that will reconcile them to the Father and make them at-one with Him, as I have now.

So men must believe that I am communicating to them the real truths which will show them the way to the Father's love and to their own salvation.
